To

All Treasury Officers and
Officers of the Education Department.

RECEIPTS FOR MONEYS PAID INTO THE TREASURIES ON BEHALF OF THE EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

In Article 499 of the Mysore Civil Account Code, Volume II, it has been laid down that all sums paid into a Treasury by an officer of the Education Department or by any other person on his behalf should be accompanied by challans in triplicate. It has however been found that the third challan is unnecessary as it is sufficient if the Treasury issues one challan to the party presenting the money and sends the duplicate to the Director of Public Instruction (Financial Branch) along with the copy of the subsidiary register. The use of the third challan in respect of such remittances may therefore be dispensed with.
